Aikido, the Way of Harmony

Aikido was developed by Morihei Ueshiba (1883-1969) as a synthesis of his long studies of traditional Japanese martial arts and also his deep spiritual principles. The goal of Aikido techniques is that practitioners could defend themselves even without hurting their attackers too.

With Respect & Safety, Enjoy Aikido !

We are trying to make an open and enjoyable practice place of Aikido for many people, where irrespective of the ages/gender/physique, anyone can start and continue Aikido practice freely for the long time. You may come to our lesson at any time at your convenience★

For more information, please see our website and facebook page, searching by "Aishinkan Kyoto"

For any question, please e-mail to : aishinkandojo@gmail.com
